APPLICATION PROCEDURE

HOW TO APPLY

Submit a complete application package containing the following:

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------|
| 1. Completed application form | 4. Essay |
| 2. Official Transcripts and Certificates | 5. References |
| 3. Standardised test scores or proof of candidature (if applicable) | 6. Medical Declaration Form |

All forms must be completed in English. Applicants who provide false or inaccurate information may be disqualified. Your full name, as shown on your identity card or passport, must appear on all submitted documents. Please notify us of any name variations.

Applicants are responsible for ensuring that all materials reach the Scholarship Section, Directorate of Administration and Manpower, Ministry of Defence, by the application deadline.

APPLICATION MATERIALS

An application will be reviewed only when all required materials are received.

1. Application Form

Complete pages 1 to 13 of the application form in full. Do not submit résumés in place of required sections. Do not submit videos, electronic media, books, or manuscripts, as they will not be reviewed. Applications must be submitted by hand; faxed or mailed submissions will not be accepted.

2. Official Transcripts and Certificates

Submit official transcripts and diplomas/certificates from all secondary and post-secondary institutions attended. If official transcripts are unavailable, provide certified copies along with a list of courses taken and grades received.

3. Standardised Test Scores (US university applicants only)

If applicable, enter your TOEFL/IELTS, SAT I, and SAT II scores on the application form and include a photocopy of the official score report.

4. Essay (Attachment 1)

Submit a 400–500 word original essay describing who you are and what you are passionate about. Typed submissions are strongly preferred. Plagiarised content will not be accepted.

5. References (Attachment 2 & 3)

Provide at least two references from individuals familiar with your abilities and character (e.g., school principal, counsellor, teacher, or organisation leader). References must be completed using the provided forms. Additional pages, if required, must be typed on the referee's official letterhead and submitted in a sealed envelope signed across the flap.

NOTE:

Incomplete applications will not be processed.

The award of the Scholarship will be contingent upon: 1) achieving the required results; 2) gaining admission into a prestigious university/college; 3) success in our selection process and 4) passing a comprehensive medical check
